NEW ZEALAND'S LEADING AUTHORITY ON BUILDING COMPLIANCE

TRAINING, EDUCATION AND DEVELOPMENT FOR BUILDING AND PROPERTY PROFESSIONALS

WHO WE HELP

- Architects, engineers and designers
- Building suppliers / manufacturers
- Independent Qualified Persons / Compliance companies
- Licensed Building Practitioners / Trades
- Local government building control staff and regulatory managers
- Pre-purchase inspectors / building surveyors
- Property and facilities managers
- Property owners and investors
- Real estate professionals and property advisors
- Trade suppliers

HOW WE HELP

- As New Zealand's leading authority on building compliance we share our knowledge and expertise with you via e-learning courses and live training events
- We partner with professional industry bodies to offer training to their members
- We offer you tailored training solutions based on your budget, your business size and your professional requirements.

ONLINE TRAINING

- BuildNet – An online one-stop shop giving you annual membership to cover all your building compliance training.
- E-Learning – A range of courses that you can pick and choose from, allowing you to learn in your own time, and from anywhere with an internet connection. You won't incur any travel costs or travel time and most importantly you will earn your skills maintenance and CPD points.
- Refresher Training – We're with you for the long haul. As you continue to invest in your professional development, we'll continue to provide you with the online courses you need to refresh and cement your knowledge.

CLIENT FEEDBACK

"Fantastic course."

"Delivery of course exceptional."

"Learnt much more than what I had expected to learn."

"Essential toolbox to best navigate the maze of procedures."

"Extremely informative. I believe it is a must, a real eye opener."

LIVE TRAINING

- Seminars, workshops and group events – Designed for professionals and individuals throughout the building and property industries. Our extensive list of courses and live events give you the chance to network and build your knowledge at the same time.
- Customised in-house training – Existing courses can be tailored to your requirements; or we can create a course specifically for your organisation, where a gap in your current schedule has been identified.
- VIP Packages – An opportunity for you to tap in to the extensive expertise of Building Network's founder, Rosemary Killip, through a one-to-one mentoring service.

FREE RESOURCES AND ADVICE

- Download your FREE copy of Building Networks e-book "Beginners Guide to Building Law" from our website: www.buildingnetworks.co.nz
 - It costs nothing to arrange an assessment of your training needs. We offer a complimentary appraisal of your current training schedule and if we recognise any gaps, we'll advise you of the best possible solution.

YOUR GUARANTEE OF OUR EXPERTISE

- Twenty-five years of training and delivery experience.
- Twenty-five years of niche building industry experience.
- Twenty-five years of designing, developing and delivering training and business solutions to professional and trades groups, government agencies and local government bodies.
- A team of subject matter expert trainers who remove the boring from building law, and add a dash of brilliance; delivering a serious subject with energy, humour and fun.
- If you attend one of our live events and learn nothing new we'll refund your fee.

SUPPORT TESTIMONIAL

"I've been in this game since 1991 and have been on more courses than you can shake a stick at. Your course was the first time since then I've actually learnt something. You know your stuff and your confidence shows it, you add humour which makes even the dumbest of us take note of what you are saying. It was a pleasure and a great deal of help to me, thank you very much."
